

2012 Engineer's Week Student Competition

Camden County College
CIM Building Auditorium
Blackwood, NJ 08012

2/21/2012
7:00 P.M.

Details

The Technical Studies Department of Camden County College, in cooperation with the International Society of Automation (ISA) will commemorate its 14th Annual Student Competition in honor of 2012 National Engineers Week. Interested high school students, teachers and parents are invited to attend. Teams of students will be required to build a machine to accomplish the objective supplied at the beginning of the competition. Mementos will be distributed to all participating students to mark the occasion. Light refreshments will be served. RSVP: kgasparro@camdencc.edu