Hello, members of SHPE - Professional Chapters:

W. L. Gore & Associates would like to invite you to a professional development and networking event on Saturday, April 17th from 8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. at our corporate Capabilities Center in Newark, Delaware.

Through a series of technical presentations, a tour of the Capabilities Center, and product demonstrations, you will learn more about our technologies and products. Through discussions about our beliefs and core values, you will learn more about the Gore culture. You will also have the opportunity to network with Gore engineers, other Gore associates, and other members of SHPE. Please see agenda below:

8:30 - 9:45am: Transportation to Gore if applicable (people driving separately can meet at location at 10am)
10:15 - 10:45am: Intro to WL Gore & Associates
10:45 - 11:15am: 1st Technical Presentation
11:20 - 12:05pm: Capabilities Tour
12:05 - 1:15pm: Lunch ---- Networking Session
1:15 - 1:45pm: 2nd Technical Presentation & Demos
1:45 - 2:00pm: Evaluation and closing remarks
2pm: Transportation leaves Gore

Gore will provide bus transportation from Philadelphia as well as from Baltimore, with a bus leaving each location at 8:30 a.m. on that day. Driving separately is also an option. If you can join us, please RSVP so that we can hold a security badge in your name and if applicable reserve a space on the bus for you.

Gore is a technology-driven global company built on entrepreneurial innovation, integrity, and teamwork. Through our product leadership, we've been changing lives and changing industries including fabrics, medical devices, electronics, and manufacturing for more than 50 years. To check us out, please visit our new Gore Careers website at <http://www.gore.com/change-life> and our corporate website at <http://www.gore.com>.

We're looking forward to your visit! Please RSVP to Heyde E. Lopez at hlopez@wlgore.com by 4/12/10. Once you have confirmed acceptance of our invitation, we will send you more detailed information.

Best regards,

Gore Diversity and Recruiting Team
