

TIMOTHY H. HAAHS, PE, AIA

Throughout his career, Timothy H. Haahs, PE, AIA, has been blessed to receive numerous awards recognizing his achievement as an engineer and as a business leader. As President and Chief Executive Officer of Timothy Haahs & Associates, Inc. (TimHaahs), he leads the firm's national and international professional services in planning and design of mixed-use and parking structures. Focusing on master planning and mixed-use, Tim's designs integrate the parking solution with the pedestrian experience – creating active and vibrant “people places”.

Tim has been President of TimHaahs since he started the firm in 1994 with a staff of four (including himself). A true leap of faith fueled by a passion to give back to others was underway. The first order of business was writing the company's mission statement – “We exist to help those in need”. Over the next two years the company hosted benefit concerts and a variety of other events to raise money for several charities. In 1997 the firm was ranked 7th out of the 100 fastest growing firms in the Philadelphia area, and in early 1998 Tim received the Blue Chip Enterprise Initiative Award from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, an award that recognizes small businesses that have overcome obstacles to emerge stronger and excel in a competitive marketplace. He exemplifies all of the qualifications of the Delaware Valley Engineer of the Year and is an excellent representation of an accomplished leader in the engineering community.

Tim's professional affiliations include a position on the Board of Directors of the International Parking Institute and the Executive Committee of the Philadelphia Chapter of the Urban Land Institute. He is a Fellow of the American Society of Civil Engineers and was cited as the Philadelphia Section's Philadelphia Civil Engineer of the Year this past spring. He is an active member of the American Institute of Architects, the American Planning Association, the Institute for Transportation Engineers and the National Parking Association.

Raised in South Korea, Tim values his ties to the Korean-American community highly and is an active member of the Korean-American Scientists and Engineers Association, which awarded him the Entrepreneur of the Year Award for 2011. In addition to his professional affiliations, Tim also serves over 200 parishioners as pastor of Calvary Vision Church and is a member of the board of directors for the Biblical Theological Seminary, the Jesus Awakening Movement for America (JAMA) and the Jaisohn Center, an organization that provides medical, social, educational, and cultural services to low-income Korean-Americans.

Tim earned a Bachelor of Science in Civil and Urban Engineering as well as a Master of Science in Civil Engineering from the University of Pennsylvania. He is a registered professional engineer in eight states and the District of Columbia, as well as a registered architect in the state of Maryland.

Recently, Tim has presented to the United Nations on the global challenge of parking, infrastructure, and sustainable development, applying the concept of “cellular development” to create self-sustaining communities. Tim, his wife and two daughters reside in Montgomery County.

Luncheon and Awards

2012 Engineers Week in the Delaware Valley kicks off with the Awards and Proclamation Luncheon. This year's luncheon will be at the beautiful DoubleTree Hotel Philadelphia, in the heart of the Avenue of the Arts. We will present the Delaware Valley Engineers Week Awards at the luncheon.

Formal festivities will get underway with the Student Paper Poster Session and Reception, featuring a cash bar, beginning at 11:00 AM. Come out and meet the award recipients, talk to the students about their papers, and network with your fellow engineers.

Following lunch, we will present the various DVEW awards. The 2012 Engineer of the Year, Timothy Haahs, PE, AIA, will be formally introduced. Mr. Haahs and the 2012 Young Engineer of the Year, Cathy Farrell, PE, will make brief remarks and kick off the celebration of Engineers Week in the Delaware Valley.

Once again, we will recognize award recipients who have been honored in the past year by the various engineering and technical societies. The Awards PowerPoint and program will include the member of the year/project of the year, etc. award recipients from these societies who have submitted the Affiliate Award Recognition Form. Engineers Week proclamations will be on display as well.

Price: $60.00 for reservations by Friday, February 10, 2012
$70.00 after February 10, 2012 (subject to space availability)
$40.00 for government agency employees (please call for reservations)
