

POSITION: Electrical Engineer

EOC
Equal Opportunity Employer

PROFESSIONAL SYSTEMS ENGINEERING (PSE), an 'atelier' consulting, design, engineering firm established in 1986, is a national leader in providing services to: justice /corrections, government & transportation agencies, nuclear power industry, commercial firms, arts and educational facilities. PSE specializes in security, telecommunications, instructional technology, audio/visual, fire protection and life safety, specialized lighting, commissioning, construction administration, and coordination services. Convenient access to Rts. 476, 309, 63 & 73. One block to SEPTA Pennbrook Train Station (R5) in Lansdale. Our newly constructed headquarters provides an efficient, professional and pleasant work environment in a high technology setting.

PSE is seeking a full-time Electrical Engineer. Individual must possess knowledge of electrical engineering fundamentals and an Engineering Degree. Aptitude for and interest in or prior experience in: security, CCTV, access control, fire alarm/fire protection, tele/data, audio visual, building technologies, instructional technologies, specialized lighting design, and/or systems integration. Position is an opportunity for learning/growth and involvement with important design projects that protect people and their assets. Familiarity with AutoCAD a plus.

Salary & Benefits:

Industry Competitive Salary
Full Health Benefits

Vision & Dental Plan
SIMPLE/IRA Matching Contribution Plan

Principle Duties:

- Works with a team of engineers to prepare high quality deliverables during the schematic design, DD/CD phases, bid phase, construction admin, wrap-up/occupancy/post phases
- Produces projects plans, design, quality control, scheduling, project scope/fee controls on multiple projects or project elements within deadlines
- Interfaces/coordinates vendor and manufacturers activity
- Possesses effective and technical verbal and writing ability
- Works to create a collaborative design environment
- Attends meetings as necessary
- Enjoys learning from and working with a highly motivated staff on exciting projects!

Please email resume and cover letter with salary range expectation to tgf@profsyseng.com. All resumes are held in complete confidence. Only qualified candidates will be contacted.

Visit our website www.profsyseng.com for full company details.